

“Break Me Down”

Jessica Campbell/Michael Farren

Verse:

I should've seen this coming a million miles away
I should've have know for certain
Someday you'd walk away

Chorus:

Why you wanna break my heart baby
Giving me the run around
Why you wanna play those cards, baby
Why you wanna break me down
Why you wanna break me down

Verse: G Gsus

I knew that this was risky
But still I let you in, I did
Can't say it's unexpected
That's how these stories end

Bridge:

You can string me out a little more
And I'd still be waiting at your door
You'd by think now I might have learned
You're the kind of fire that always burns, you burn you burn you burn
