Baby don't call me, Don't say the right stuff
All those I miss you wanna kiss you's
That I so love to hear too much because I miss you wanna kiss you worse

Don't try to fool us, You know we're hopeless
Don't ask if you can just drop by cause I'll just say yes
So we can feel the rush return
Until we crash and burn...again

Baby don't call me, Baby don't tempt me
Baby don't give my insecure and empty
Heart a single ring of
A sad excuse to think of another lie of a reason why
We should be in touch
Baby don't call me cause I'll pick up

I'll let the phone ring try to ignore it
I'll hear your voice on my machine and I'll fall for it and I'll interrupt your ramblin' running round goodbye with my...hello

Baby don't call me, Baby don't tempt me
Baby don't give my insecure and empty
Heart a single ring of
A sad excuse to think of another lie of a reason why
We should be in touch
Baby don't call me cause I'll pick up

Baby don't call me, Baby don't tempt me
Baby don't me a reason
Baby don't call me, Baby don't tempt me
Heart a single ring of
A sad excuse to think of, another lie of a reason why
We should be in touch
Baby don't call me a use I'll pick up
