

“Finding The Perfect Love”

Aaron Espe/Jessica Campbell

Verse:

I've had some bad breaks, heart aches
Long sleepless nights
I took all the wrong turn, bridges burned
To finally get it right

Chorus:

Now I know why
I've been waiting
You can't rush
finding the perfect love

Verse:

You came out of nowhere
then right there, you in front of me
Just like some kind of miracle,
I had to see it to believe

Bridge:

I was so tired that I nearly caved in
No one could answer my questions
I started doubting the person I am
Blaming myself for the reason
