

“Losing Your Mind”

Sara Darling/Tyler Flowers

Verse:

Sometimes a dream chooses you
The only thing you can do is let go, you're not in control

We try to make it practical commonplace & rational,
But I can't tame this fire in my soul

Chorus:

So, I'm I burn burn burn like a roman candle
I'm gonna make my mark like some kind of vandal
Yeah, It's crazy, crazy not to try
Even if following your heart means losing your mind

Verse:

You hear it knocking at your door
That little voice you can't ignore
Just go ahead and try to turn it loose

But it'll keep coming around
Like a rumour in this town
It just takes one spark to light this fuse

Chorus

Bridge:

G A Bm, G A Bm
Call me mad, Call me wild
I'll be (stay) wide-eye just like a child

½ Chorus:

Cause I think it's crazy, crazy not to try
Even if following your heart means losing your mind (to the minor)
Even if following your heart means losing your mind
